

OFFICIAL RECRUITMENT INCENTIVE

The Official Recruitment Incentive is designed to encourage current officials to recruit new officials to the various officials' groups in Section VIII. Section VIII will pay any current official a fee of $100 to recruit a new official.

The fee will be paid once the recruiting official submits this form after the newly recruited official works the required number of games for Section VIII in the sport certified to officiate. An official is limited to FIVE recruitment incentive officials per year.
